

Gloria DeSantis (PhD)

Research Area: Community/Environment as a Health Determinant
Thesis Title: An examination of the policy advocacy work and impacts of the Saskatchewan voluntary sector using a population health framework.
Dept/Institution: Canadian Plains Research Centre, U of R
CPHR Mentor: Jeffery, Bonnie

Scholarships and Awards

CPHR Strategic Training Fellow	2003
Douglas Coldwell Foundation Scholarship	2005

Publications

Peer Reviewed

DeSantis, G. (1994) Do you know what I think? A case for women as active participants in community research. Women and Environments. Women and Environments. Toronto: Weed Foundation Vol. 14: No. 1:

DeSantis, G. (Summer / Fall 2000) Where have all the women gone? WE International. University of Toronto: Institute for Women's Studies and Gender Studies.

Non-Peer Reviewed

DeSantis, G. (2005) The Voluntary Sector in Saskatchewan. Written for the Saskatchewan Encyclopedia.

Technical Papers/Reports

DeSantis, G., Theriault, L., Gill, C. (2003) Social Economy in Saskatchewan: A historical glance at related concepts, meanings and influences. School of Social Work, University of Regina, Unpolished manuscript.

Presentations

Date: Jan 31, 2006

Place: Regina, SK

Title: Public Policy Making with Marginalized Communities: Exercises President's Leadership Council in Engagement.

Details: Afternoon workshop for senior students at the U of R.

Date: Jun 13-16, 2005

Place: Fredericton, NB

Title: What does policy advocacy with marginalized communities have to do with population health?

Details: Canadian Social Welfare Policy Conference (12th Bi-annual) Co-sponsored by University of New Brunswick and Canadian Council of Social Development

Date: Oct 29, 2005

Place: Edmonton, AB

Title: The Voluntary Sector in Saskatchewan: A Historical Glance at Related Concepts, Meanings and Influences.

Details: Association for Canadian Studies Forum - Conference

Research and Related Work Experience

Senior Planner; Waterloo Region Social Resources Council, Waterloo, Ontario;	1987
Research Director; Social Planning & Research Council of Hamilton-Wentworth, Hamilton, Ontario;	1987	1992
Seminar Facilitator; Population Health 771, Faculty of Health Sciences, McMaster University, Hamilton;	1991
Planner; Social Planning & Research Council of Hamilton-Wentworth, Hamilton, Ontario;	1992	1994
Self Help Centre Manager; Social Planning & Research Council of Hamilton-Wentworth, Hamilton, Ontario;	1995	1997
Sessional Instructor Canadian Social Policy, Plan 626, School of Planning, University of Waterloo;	1997
Executive Director; Social Planning Council of Cambridge and North Dumfriesm Cambridge Ontario;	1997	2002
Assistant Practicum Professor; Faculty of Social Work, Wilfrid Laurier University;	2000	2002
Sessional Lecturer; Dept. of Justice Studies, University of Regina;	2003
Researcher; Faculty of Social Work, University of Regina;	2003	2004