

Janelle Hippe (Masters)

Research Area: Culture Identity and Health
Thesis Title: Risk, regulation, and individualization: a critical consideration of health discourses, policies, and practices addressing Canadian Aboriginal women's prenatal health.
Dept/Institution: Sociology and Social Studies, U of R
CPHR Mentor: Jaffe, JoAnn

Scholarships and Awards

SSHRC Graduate Scholarship, Master level	2005
CPHR Strategic Training Fellow	2005

Publications

Technical Papers/Reports

Hippe, Janelle (Aug 2004) "Canadian Foreign Policy: Framing the Issues" Document Produced for the Saskatchewan Council of International Co-operation

Presentations

Date: Mar-2005

Place: University of Saskatchewan, Sociology and Social Studies, SK

Title: "Women, Bio-Power, and the Social Construction of Population Discourse: An Historical Analysis with a contemporary case study in Nepal"

Details: Graduate Student Conferences

Date: Mar-2006

Place: University of Regina, SK

Title: "Governmentality, Medicalization, and the Discourse on Risks': A Critical Framework for Reflecting on the Impact of Risk Epidemiology in the Discourse on Health and Disease"

Details: Paper presented at the U of R/ U of S, Sociology Graduate Student Conference, 2006.

Research and Related Work Experience

Research Assistant; Department of Community Resources & Employment (DCRE); Labour Market attachment needs assessment interviews with vulnerable persons.

Student Researcher; Saskatchewan Council for International Cooperation (SCIC); 2004

Teaching Assistant; Department of Sociology & Social Studies, University of Regina; 2005