

Laura Taylor (PhD)

Research Area: Capacity Building, Power and Powerlessness
Thesis Title: Understanding sexual health in the context of intimate partner violence.
Dept/Institution: Psychology, U of R
CPHR Mentor: Hampton, Mary

Scholarships and Awards

Graduate Research Award - University of Regina	2002
Graduate Teaching Assistantship - University of Regina	2002
Saskatchewan Health Scholarship	2003
Graduate Teaching Assistantship - University of Regina	2004
CPHR Strategic Training Fellow	2005

Publications

Presentations

Research and Related Work Experience

Outreach worker; Canadian Mental Health Association;	2002
Internship; Functional Rehabilitation Program;	2003
Research Assistant; Community Psychology Research Team; Strengthening and building sexual health of Aboriginal youth and young adults.	2003
Youth Advocate; Family Service Regina	2004
Research Assistant; Community Psychology Research Team; Developing and piloting cross-cultural curriculum: End of life health care.	2004
Internship; University of Regina - Psychology Training Clinic;	2004
Provincial Coordinator; Prairie Women's Research; The healing Journey: A longitudinal study of women who have been abused by intimate partners.	2005